CASTRO DYING.

Venezuela President Near End.

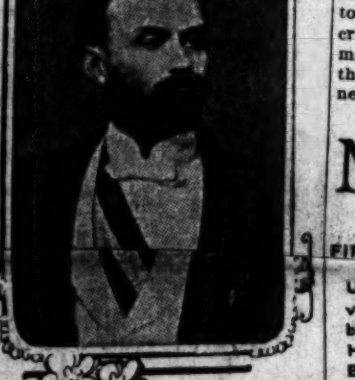

Little Ruler of Diminutive Republic Moved to Macuto in a Bed.

Arrives at Coast Village Unconscious, and in Critical Condition.

Exiled Parades Organizes to Take the Field, With Many Rifles.

PORT DE FRANCE (Martinique) Dec. 9.—Reliable advices received here from Venezuela tonight set forth that President Castro was moved down to the little seacoast village of Macuto, near La Guayra, last Monday. The President is described as being very ill.

Castro made the trip from Caracas in a bed.

CIPRIANO CASTRO, President of Venezuela, believed to be dying.

in a bed. When he arrived at Macuto he appeared to be absolutely unconscious.

It is generally believed that Castro has no chance of recovery.

Violently worded posters have been circulated in Caracas declaring that no one is today declared regarding the gravity of President Castro's illness, and insisting that the exercises of the executive power be assured through a Vice-President, as is provided for in the constitution.

For a long time past, only routine government matters have been attended to, and important questions are being held in abeyance.

OFFICIALS MUST HUSTLE.

Tennessee Insurance Commissioner Gives Two Companies Ten Days to Refund Money.

NASHVILLE (Tenn.) Dec. 9.—State Commissioner of Insurance R. E. Folk, today sent telegrams to the Mutual Life and New York Life Insurance companies giving them ten days in which to refund certain amounts of policy holders money.

The Mutual, he charges, has used several thousand dollars as compensation and expenses for agents to electioneer for the administration ticket and cites the evidence.

The New York Life officials are given ten days in which to have in its treasury money spent for printing and circulating 800 administration ballots.

McKeesport Lassies Get Down Into it to Prevent Workmen from Putting Up "Unfriendly" Pole. Take Turns About and Threaten Linemen.

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Elizabeth and Margaret Grover, well-known young society women of McKeesport, are taking turns at standing in a hole in front of their home to prevent workmen employed by a telephone company from erecting an unsightly pole.

The workmen attempted to erect the pole yesterday, but were thwarted by the young women.

Another unsuccessful attempt was made today, but Miss Margaret refused to get out of the hole and threatened criminal proceedings if an attempt was made to drag her out. The girls say they will stay on guard all winter if necessary.

Use Pistol in Spirit of Bravado, Surrounded by Tunnel Laborers—Officer Grabs His Hand as He is About to Shoot Again, Then Brings Him Down.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] John Gatewood, bully of a negro laborer's camp on the river tunnel work in Long Island City, shot a policeman today in an exhibition of bravado, when surrounded by fifty of his mates, and was instantly killed by another policeman.

Upon a report that a pistol fight was in progress among the negroes, Policemen Charles Campbell and Henry Stuebel went to the place. They were met by Gatewood.

"Where are you going? You're no right in here. Get out of here," Gatewood said to the policeman, while the other negroes lined up behind him.

Campbell and Stuebel replied that he was under arrest. Thereupon the negro fired a revolver at Campbell. The bullet struck a button over the policeman's heart, and was deflected upward, passing through his left ear.

Stuebel reached for Gatewood's pistol with his right hand, as the negro was about to fire again, and with his left drew his own revolver and fired once. The bullet passed through the negro's temple, killing him instantly.

Chicago "Four Hundred" Lined Up from Fashionable Pulpits for Risk and Piquant Bazaar Said to Have Been Bad on Young Girls' Morals—Show Was "Too Frenchy."

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The society women of Chicago were warmly criticized in many of the fashionable pulpits of Chicago today on account of the "Too Frenchness" of the "Streets of Paris," the big charity bazaar held during the last week at the Coliseum, under the auspices of the leading society women of the city.

Rabbi Hirsch, Rev. Jenkin Lloyd Jones, and Rev. Johnstone Meyer were among those who criticized. Rabbi Hirsch denounced the function as a corrupter of young girls. At the bazaar were reproductions of the Moulin Rouge, and the entire show was brought out with a piquancy, not to say risquéness, which the preachers contended was a bad thing for the morals of Chicago.

SHAH STILL LINGERS. TEHERAN, Dec. 9.—The condition of the Shah was no worse today. Parliament has demanded an immediate answer from the government as to whether the constitution is to be signed or not.

RIVER IN BIG RAGE.

Bed of Stream Is Only Mud.

Colorado Is Again Turned Toward Salton Sea and Fight Is on.

Water Rushes Through Fantastic Canyon Cut by Itself Last Summer.

Situation Is as Bad but no Worse Than Before the Recent Closure.

YUMA (Ariz.) Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Once more that great chocolate colored dragon—the Colorado River—is triumphant. Three days ago it began to claw at the dike which had been thrown up to impound it. It got its head through Friday night, gained on it yesterday and today its slimy body reaches all the way down to the Salton Sink.

The old channel of the Colorado is but a stretch of slippery mud, while the river itself is tumbling down to the sink through the weird and fantastic cañon it carved for itself last summer.

The battle is on once more. It is a struggle with this great repulsive brute that gathers the soil along its pathway for a thousand miles and piles it up here that it can clamber upon it over all barriers and slide down into the beautiful valley where a thousand farms decked the landscape. It is a struggle worthy of men, and the battle is being fought as men fight.

NOT WORSE THAN BEFORE

toward Salton Sea, just as it was before the closure was effected a month ago, just as bad but no worse than it was then.

And now I must return to Imperial Valley to face those thousands of people who for two years had hoped against hope for the salvation of their homes, who a month ago were told that their land was redeemed from the menace of inundation, but who now must learn once more to fight a manly fight against discouraging fate.

I am not going to attempt to paint a false picture. I am not going to hold out any false hope. I am not going to declare that success is a certainty. We may as well face the truth, and the truth is that no man can see five months into the future of Imperial and Coachella Valleys. If the Colorado River is not mastered for all time in five months the prospects are that these valleys, which constitute the main part of the erstwhile Colorado desert, will have ceased for a score of years to be a habitable part of the globe.

I believe the conquest will be made. There is good reason to place hope in the money, the equipment and the engineering skill of the Southern Pacific Company, which now faces the greatest engineering problem ever presented to any railroad, and which must realize that it has a gigantic fight for the preservation of its main line.

But, if it fails in accomplishing this

And Now What?

At a late hour last night the Southern Pacific management, when informed of the situation, expressed great discouragement. It has not yet been decided whether the railroad will endeavor to once more stop the gap and turn back the river into its old channel, or abandon the expensive undertaking and rebuild its transcontinental line around the Salton sink higher than the flood, far above the possibility of future devastation. If the Southern Pacific decides to make no further attempts to harness the river, it means that the Salton Sea will soon spread to Mecca and several other settlements, and they must be abandoned.

DRAMATIC OATH BEFORE JURY.

MRS. ANGIE BIRDSONG SWEARS TO HER HONOR.

Belief That Woman on Trial for Murder of Dr. Butler Has Scored a Victory With Jurors—Says She Committed Crime to Protect Womanhood and Her Child.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] HAZLEHURST (Miss.) Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Angie Fox Birdsong, on trial for her life, today stood half erect in the witness chair, and, fixing her black eyes on the jury, exclaimed passionately: "I swear before my God that no intimacy has ever existed between Dr. Butler and myself; I shot him to protect my honor, my womanhood and my child."

She is believed to have won the twelve Ophian county farmers, who compose this jury.

After this opening of the book of Mrs. Birdsong's dramatic life, there is a scant belief among those who have sat through this trial that there will be a conviction. The impression here tonight is, after reviewing all the sensational evidence of Saturday, that not acquitted, it will be a miracle.

United States Senator A. J. McLaughlin is credited with having scored a coup in his handling of the defense in placing Mrs. Birdsong on the stand.

STEAMER RESCUES CREW.

Seventeen Members of Waterlogged and Deserted Vessel Picked Up in Exhausted Condition.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.] NASSAU (N. P.) Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A steamer, the Wellington, which sailed from Gulf Port, Miss., November 12, with a cargo of lumber for Rosario, Argentina, was waterlogged when deserted. The Sokoto will take the rescued persons to Havana.

KRUPP COMPANY GROWS.

Gun Manufacturers to Erect $15,000,000-Building and Increase Capital Stock.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.] ESSEN (Prussia) Dec. 9.—The Krupp Company has decided to increase its capital stock by $5,000,000 and to erect a new building to cost about $15,000,000.

All the new issues of stock is to remain in the Krupp family. One million one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars of the new issue will be placed in reserve.

PRECIOUS STONES IMPORTED.

This Year's Supply at New York Exceeds Last Year's by Three Million Dollars.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With December's figures still to be added, the imports of precious stones in New York this year exceeds by $2,000,000 the total for all of last year, which exceeded all previous years.

The total thus far in 1906 is $40,500,000, and December promises to make a large addition to that figure. The total is expected to be four times as much as that of 1900, which was a little more than $12,000,000.

Some authorities estimated that New York bought 60 per cent. of the world's supply of the stones.

FEUDS AND FAMINES.

LODZ (Russian Poland) Dec. 9.—By the recent closing down of factories here, 30,000 persons are without food, demonstrations by lawless persons are increasing, and the feud between the Nationalist and Socialist laborers is being renewed. Laborers during the past two days have killed five Nationalists and wounded fifteen.

HIS FORTUNE VANISHED.

Otherwise He Would Have Spent It All for Cocktails.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SOUTH NORWALK (Conn.) Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Harry Reid, a local bartender, got word yesterday in a telegram that his aunt, Mrs. Margaret Cunningham of Wallingford, Conn., had just died leaving him $300,000. He immediately quit his job and announced he would drink up the bequest in booze at the rate of twenty cocktails daily.

Tonight he got a telegram from his aunt saying: "I am still alive. Harry, better go back to work for awhile."

During the fiscal year indictments containing 319 cases were returned by the various grand juries as the result of this investigation.

"A most striking and important result immediately followed the investigation of the bureau and railroads canceled nearly all the secret rates, illegal or improper discriminations, and in many cases the discriminations in open rates. The shippers of oil advised the bureau that for the first time in many years they are now rapidly obtaining equality of treatment from the transportation companies."

Commissioner Garfield urges again the necessity for the establishment of Federal inspection and supervision of the greater industrial corporations engaged in interstate commerce.

Denial of the right to engage in interstate commerce is suggested as the penalty for proved violation of the law. The report says that the work of the year strikingly demonstrates the value of effective publicity for the correction of corporate abuses.

FACING A CRISIS.

Deadlock in France Now Complete.

Pope's Eleventh-Hour Rejection of Ultimatum Is Declared Final.

Parish Priests Must Remain in Churches Until They Are Driven Out.

Official Confirmation of Final Report Creates a Big Sensation.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS-P.M.] PARIS, Dec. 9.—France tonight seems to face an alarming religious crisis.

Last night's report of the Pope's eleventh-hour rejection of the government's final offer, under which Catholic worship could be continued under the common law, turns out to be only too true, and the deadlock now is apparently complete.

According to the Holy Father's orders, declarations under the law of 1881 are prohibited, but the parish priests must remain in their churches until driven out by violence.

THE OFFICIAL SENSATION.

The official confirmation of this report has created a sensation, both in government and Catholic circles. Cardinal Lecot, Archbishop of Bordeaux, Archbishop Germain and others, who already had advised compliance with the law, have hastily instructed the parish priests of their dioceses that their former advice is null and void, and today in all the churches, "and Cardinal Richelieu's own instructions, in view of the order issued by the Prefect of the Seine yesterday, are not to permit for the present the employment of ceremonial draperies at marriages or funerals."

PRAYERS AND THANKS.

The church wardens, whose legal existence expires next Tuesday, were thanked today from the pulpits of the various churches.

Prayers were offered asking for the protection of God during the coming period of persecution.

The government regards the action of the Pontiff as little less than a summons of the French Catholics to open rebellion, as rendering the situation exceedingly grave, and possibly entailing the most deplorable crisis.

CONFERENCE HELD.

Premier Clemenceau and M. Briand, Minister of Public Worship, were in conference all day today.

There is no sign of the government faltering, but it is recognized that they may be forced to resort to extreme measures.

M. Briand said today that the decision of the Pope was entirely unexpected.

BRIAND'S OPINIONS.

"The encyclical is very grave," said M. Briand. "While condemning the law of 1905, it advises recourse to the common law. Although the refusal to form cultural associations was, in my opinion, an error and to the detriment of the church, it was the church's legal right to refuse."

"In a spirit of conciliation, out of respect to the consciences of the French Catholics, and in order to do nothing to disturb peace and tranquillity, the government thereupon prescribed this easy means of continuing worship by a simple declaration in accordance with the law of 1881."

POPE'S "BRUTAL" ORDER.

"The Pope's brutal order to the clergy to reject this offer practically incites them to violate the laws of the country. He no longer acts as the spiritual head of the Church, as the canonical objections against the law of 1905 cannot be invoked against that of 1881. The Pope now assumes a political leadership, and the vital question is whether the Catholics of France will consent to follow him or not. If they do the government will act with even greater energy because of the tolerance it has manifested heretofore."

"Every violation of the law will be prosecuted; and, furthermore, special measures, legislative and otherwise, may be taken."

ALTERNATIVE THREATENED.

The special measures referred to by M. Briand are those intimated by Premier Clemenceau in the Chamber of Deputies, namely to strip the clergy of their privileges, compel them to perform military service, and, as a last resort, to treat them as foreign subjects.

Militant Catholics are rejoicing at the stern attitude of the Pope. A religious organ says the faithful can now face the future with serenity and "show the persecutors of the church that the daughter of eternity disdains the efforts of wicked men and will triumph in the end."

YOUNG ROOSEVELT AFTER PRESS AGENT.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

BOSTON (Mass.) Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "The story about my engagement to Miss Elsie Janis has gone altogether too far and the fresh press agent I know who he is—will hear from me in the near future," said Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., last evening at Harvard in a statement relative to what action he would take against the continual hounding of his name with that of Miss Elsie Janis, the famous young actress who is now playing in this city.

Because of the statement of young Roosevelt, that he never saw Miss Janis, he was followed closely by a statement by Miss Janis that she had played in the White House before the Roosevelt family on last February, at which entertainment she was introduced to the members of the family. Boston society and friends of the President's son are wondering if there might not be something behind the whole affair. So great has been the gossip about the city that young Roosevelt finally consented to interview a reporter friend.

When asked about the rumor that he intended to bring suit, the young man said:

"The actress engagement talk is going altogether too far. The press agent will regret what he has done. I can't say who the lawyer is, but I know he has engaged, but there certainly will be something doing just the same."

HE RIDES THE "GOAT."

TEDDY "DOING STUNTS."

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., son of the President, is joining the "Dicky" (D.K.E.) the most mysterious secret organization of all the fraternities at Harvard. The initiation lasts nearly a week, and Teddy is doing the most weird sort of wintery stunts in a summer costume of light flannels, canvas shoes and bareheaded.

He is placed on a diet of mustard pickles, hot buttered milk, raw oysters, maple syrup, warm squash pie, with a finger bowl full of benzine in place of water. He is required to go to a theater every night and make himself conspicuous while a "Dicky" member frequently approaches, asks for a glass of ginger pop, a cigarette or "Teddy bear" and berates him for not providing the necessities of life.

Every night he must appear for the edification of fellow members and the public generally.

DIRT AND DUST TO BLAME.

The Cause of Consumption, Sore Throat, Cold in Head and Pneumonia.

One of the most important causes of modern physical deterioration, says the Grand Magazine, is the lack of open-air life, the common lot of all city dwellers. The greatest surgical discovery of the nineteenth century was dirt, matter in the wrong place.

The greatest medical discovery that will be made in this century will be dust. It takes at least two hours in fresh open air each day to counteract the effects of the dust in the lungs, without estimating the wear and tear of the tissues due to nature's extraordinary effort to intercept this terrible enemy. If we would evade this deadly dust, the cause alike of consumption, sore throat, cold in the head and pneumonia, it is essential to take ourselves to parks and open-air spaces, green fields and country lanes.

Many diseases of the alimentary canal are directly brought about by the contamination of food which has been exposed in a dust-polluted atmosphere, and in these days of motor cars, far more elaborate precautions ought to be taken to protect milk, meat, fruit and vegetables from dust and flies, which, after feeding on garbage of all kinds, bestow their attention on milk and other foods displayed at shop doors and in other unprotected places.

An important factor is the length of dresses. When skirts are allowed to trail in the dust they catch up the numerous colonies of microbes and transfer them alike to public meeting places and private dwelling rooms.

But it is not enough to get out of doors if one goes no further than the city streets. One must get to the park or the fields.

ELECTRICAL SCHEME COLOSSAL.

Swedish Railroads to Be All Operated by Electricity in Place of Steam.

For nearly twelve months now practical tests have been in operation in Sweden for placing the whole of the railway system of the country under electric traction, and results have been obtained which some time since induced the government to take a decisive step.

At the well-known falls of Gullfoss there is now being built an enormous electricity station, which is to be capable of producing not less than 150,000 horse power. This installation alone, when completed, will furnish a great proportion of the energy needed for industrial and illumination purposes for the whole of central Sweden.

The cost of construction will be maximum fines would reach $120,000.

The system of education in force in the United States will be introduced.

STRIKES A POPULAR CHORD.

It will be remembered that the President's recommendation for reform in the railroad situation so as to give the Interstate Commerce Commission power to fix rates on a "thumb rule" from a clear sky. In less than a week the country was in a ferment because a popular measure of reform struck, although the agitation before that time in the same direction seemed to arouse no popular response.

There was a suspicion of socialism about that proposition which was based upon the fact that it was proposed by a man who was known by all their interests. But the people looking at the situation in the face determined that governmental regulation was not governmental ownership, and from the day that paragraph in the message was made public until the rate law was passed by Congress there was no time during which the demand for such reform showed any signs of abatement.

The railroads resorted to delay; they established literary bureaus; they went to the limit of their endeavor to educate the public to their point of view, but without the slightest indication of success in any time.

MORE SOCIALISTIC THAN RATE IDEA.

According to Congressmen who have returned to Washington for a few days, and who had their eyes fixed on the ground during the campaign, the country is in a frame of mind to lash itself into a condition of perhaps hysteria by the proposition to limit the rate of the railroads by preventing their descending from one generation to another and attacking living interests.

This coming fight between the man of moderate means and the rich man promises to take on the proportions of a civil war. Representatives of the people who come from the West say that the inheritance of the country is a matter of theory, and while there is not the slightest chance of legislation at the coming session of Congress, there is a prospect, following out the analogy of the rate agitation, that there will be a special session of Congress and throughout the country beginning the day the President sends in his recommendations, either in his regular message or otherwise, and continuing probably during the remainder of his administration.

Excellent Wine from Figs.

Consul Maxwell Blake of Funchal advises that some interest has been aroused in the island of Madeira as to the making of a wine of excellent quality.

The professor states that his flavor is agreeable, that it is a rich in phosphoric matter and almost wholly destitute of tannic acid, qualities that render it especially nourishing to the infants and children.

The pulp is said also to create a new food for milk cows and fowls. The fresh fig contains about 25 per cent. of sugar, but after it has been dried and prepared for the making of wine it yields 58 per cent. sugar.

Free Baths for Postman.

A postman's lot in Berlin has become a luxurious one since the authorities have taken to introducing elaborate bathing facilities for letter carriers.

Each postoffice and cold water baths are at the disposal of the carriers and those officials engaged in more onerous duties are served as often as they care to take them. Soap and towels in abundance are also supplied.

INCOME TAX NOT POPULAR.

President's Scheme May Be Bitterly Opposed.

Wants Measure to Bear on Plutocrats Most.

Burden Easy One for People of Small Means.

There is every reason to believe that within the next week or two the country will be convulsed with a financial and economic discussion which will so far overshadow other things that it will occupy the attention of Congress and the people to the exclusion of many other topics of perhaps greater importance, says the Chicago Tribune.

Miller now wears a wax nose, but says this is too hideous, and besides, is liable to melt.

He probably will consult Dr. George H. Monks, a noted surgeon in skin grafting and facial operations.

tax hits the just and unjust alike, but the Roosevelt scheme will leave the small fry in security and would operate as a practical prohibition on great incomes.

INHERITANCE TAX AS CURB.

Much the same theory is applied in the President's mind to an inheritance tax. In most of the laws of this character passed by States and by Congress, the Federal government as well, during the Spanish War, the theory has been applied to increase the rate of tax according to the size of the estate.

Relationship to which the estate is to descend. That is to say, an estate of certain amount going to a son would pay but a small tax while the same estate going to a man not blood related would pay a tax many times as great.

The Roosevelt idea would be almost the reverse of this. What he wants to do is to prevent the descent of swollen fortunes from father to son, and to break up these great fortunes as much as possible and to put a premium on their dispersion during the lifetime of the holder.

Under Roosevelt's scheme an estate used up for a short time, like the Marshall Field department store, would be taxed as if it were a tax so large that it would split the estate in two or into good sized portions.

Previously broken up during the lifetime of the original owner, the operation of this type of tax would tend to divert fortunes to some extent away from the family and into the hands of friends and trustees as well as institutions.

TAX A REVENUE PRODUCER.

With this type of inheritance and income tax levied avowedly at the rich, it is the belief of President Roosevelt that he could secure the desired revenue of great fortunes as they now exist and prevent their being piled up in the hands of a few families.

If the true theory of the Roosevelt financial scheme works out, however, the result will be a redistribution of great fortunes and hence would not be so great a revenue producer, because many of the rich would be unable to pay the tax.

It is known that the government would take possession of the greater part of it upon his death. Even under those circumstances, however, the revenue derived from such sources would be great, and it probably would be more than enough to run the government, so that internal revenues and customs duties necessarily would be abolished or else the government itself would soon control all the money in the country.

MAY CAUSE GREAT AGITATION.

It is known that the coming battle royal there will be arrayed on the one side poor men, men of moderate incomes, and the moderately rich who have been unable to hold their own against the enormously rich. Against them will be the enormously rich individuals, great corporations, and the government itself.

There are elements in the fight which can readily split the country on a matter of theory, and while there is not the slightest chance of legislation at the coming session of Congress, there is a prospect, following out the analogy of the rate agitation, that there will be a special session of Congress and throughout the country beginning the day the President sends in his recommendations, either in his regular message or otherwise, and continuing probably during the remainder of his administration.

Excellent Wine from Figs.

Consul Maxwell Blake of Funchal advises that some interest has been aroused in the island of Madeira as to the making of a wine of excellent quality.

The professor states that his flavor is agreeable, that it is a rich in phosphoric matter and almost wholly destitute of tannic acid, qualities that render it especially nourishing to the infants and children.

The pulp is said also to create a new food for milk cows and fowls. The fresh fig contains about 25 per cent. of sugar, but after it has been dried and prepared for the making of wine it yields 58 per cent. sugar.

Free Baths for Postman.

A postman's lot in Berlin has become a luxurious one since the authorities have taken to introducing elaborate bathing facilities for letter carriers.

Each postoffice and cold water baths are at the disposal of the carriers and those officials engaged in more onerous duties are served as often as they care to take them. Soap and towels in abundance are also supplied.

ELOPES WITH SANSAM.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

TOLEDO (O.) Dec. 9.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Guided by what she claims to be the spirit of her "soul marriage" to the Chris. Sansam, Amanda Block escaped from the Door of Hope early Saturday morning, and was seen later with her "soul's affinity," who declares that their souls are united in a spiritual marriage by the Lord, for all time and eternity.

Police are searching for the couple.

CATSKILL AQUEDUCT AND OWENS RIVER.

New York's Greatest Work Compared With Los Angeles Project.

Tremendous Difficulty and Enormous Cost of Solving Gotham's Water Problem Make the Task of Los Angeles Aqueduct Builders Look Like Child's Play. New York Will Not Get Much More Water at That.

By ALLEN KELLY.

The city of New York has begun work on a water supply system which affords interesting comparison with the Owens River project brought to New York by the Catskill aqueduct is not greatly in excess of the amount obtainable in Owens Valley, the engineering problem involved is far more complicated and the cost of construction more difficult and costly.

The New York project involves first the collection and storage of the water of many rivers and creeks over an area of several hundred square miles in the Catskill region. Entire reservoirs will be destroyed to make room for reservoirs, of which there will be seven, seven of them west of the Hudson.

No work of that character is required in the Owens River project, for the natural drainage of the watershed along all the water eventually into the river, and reservoirs will be needed only to impound flood waters and regulate the flow.

TOWNS TO BE OBLITERATED.

New York is obliged to buy out and relocate towns in order to obtain reservoir sites. Los Angeles has bought grazing land for her reservoirs and not so much as a home-landed-out of cultivation, but the way of a few country merchants that the volume of their trade may be reduced by the abandonment of the land, and the fact that the Owens River project only takes a few acres of agricultural land, and the Owens River project only takes a few acres of agricultural land, and the Owens River project only takes a few acres of agricultural land.

The largest of the Catskill reservoirs is twelve miles long and a half wide, with a capacity of 1,000,000,000 gallons. It will be the largest artificial lake in the world, and will be the largest artificial lake in the world, and will be the largest artificial lake in the world.

THE OWENS RIVER PROJECT.

The Owens River aqueduct will be about 100 miles long, traversing a very rugged country, broken by a continuous range of mountains, and will be the largest artificial lake in the world, and will be the largest artificial lake in the world.

TRUE LABELS ON PURE FOOD.

Secretary of Agriculture States the Law.

Answers Inquiries Regarding Adulterated Goods.

No Evasion Will Be Allowed Manufacturers.

Inquiries have lately been received by the Bureau of Chemistry of the United States Department of Agriculture, regarding the pure food laws. Officials of the department have issued a two-page pamphlet bearing on the several clauses which are not clear to those who have sent inquiries. Erroneous opinions held by some as to the interpretation of the laws are corrected, and much helpful information on this interesting subject is given.

The pamphlet is issued, according to the statement of the writer, especially for those who are trying to conform to the existing laws. It intimates that violators who purposely disregard instructions from the government will have little interest in the published statement. One anxious inquirer asks:

"Must we stamp all goods as conforming to the drug and food laws, or must we have alcohol and narcotics on the label?"

Another asks:

"On a brand of salad oil, which is a winter-strain cotton-seed oil, can be sold under the brand of olive oil, or must it state that it is cotton-seed oil?"

In speaking directly of the question of violation of the law demanding the correct labeling of food products, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson says:

"TO PREVENT MISBRANDING.

"It may be proper to add that in reaching opinions and decisions on these cases the department keeps constantly in view the two great purposes of the food and drug act, namely, to prevent misbranding and to prohibit adulteration. From the tenor of the correspondence received at this department and from the oral hearings which have been held, it is evident that an overwhelming majority of the manufacturers, jobbers and dealers of this country are determined to do their utmost to conform to the provisions of the act, to support it in every particular, and to accede to the opinions of this department respecting its construction.

"It is hoped, therefore, that the publication of the opinions and decisions of the department will lead to the avoidance of litigation which might arise due to decisions which might be reached by this department. Violations of the act, violations which would not be considered as such by the department, and decisions of this department have been brought to the attention of the department.

"The adulteration of whisky and other liquors on the market is given special attention. Manufacturers are enlightened as to the views of the department on this particular part of the food and drug act. The conditions on which the words, 'blended whisky' and 'other liquors' may be used are given, and no latitude is given to those who would place on the market spurious articles branded with a label which is not the genuine article.

PRUNE JUICE AND SUGAR.

Whisky which contains a certain percentage of neutral spirits, with probably 40 per cent. of whisky added, and with burnt sugar used for coloring and to give it a certain flavor, is not only not the genuine article, but must run the risk of litigation by the government.

There is no uncertainty as to the statement of Mr. Wilson on this important subject. He says:

"The question presented is whether neutral spirits may be added to bourbon whisky in varying quantities, colored and flavored, and the resulting mixture be labeled 'whisky'. The department is of the opinion that the mixture presented cannot legally be labeled either 'blended whisky' or 'other liquors'. The use of the word 'whisky' in the first case is evidently improper for the reason that there is only one whisky in the mixture.

If neutral spirit, also known as cologne spirit, or saccharine, be diluted with water to a proper proof for consumption and artificially colored and flavored, it is not whisky, but becomes a 'spirit' or 'other liquor' and is not entitled to the name of whisky. The mixture of such an imitation with a genuine article cannot be regarded as a mixture of two substances within the letter and intent of the law."

ADDRESSES Y.M.C.A.

S. D. Mellin Speaks Upon the "Power of a Redeemed Soul" and Lives Made Useful.

S. D. Mellin, who attended the convention of the Baptist church at Temple Auditorium, delivered an address yesterday afternoon before the Y.M.C.A. at No. 6214 South Broadway. His subject was "The Power of a Redeemed Soul." He spoke of the tendency of men to adopt savage customs and become savages in their nature, no matter how carefully they have been reared, when placed under savage conditions.

He said, shows all men to be partly evil, and that the powers of evil are always seeking to bring out the evil that is in them. "The power to overcome this evil," he went on, "is the power that Christ gives us when we accept Him. He declared that there never was a life so unuseful that it could not be made a very useful one by the power of Christ."

OVER HALF INCH.

Yesterday's Rain Brings Fall for the Season Not Far from Two-Inch Mark.

Yesterday's rain, which continued at intervals during the day in Los Angeles, appears to have been general over Southern California. At Bakersfield it rained during the afternoon.

Last night the fall lessened gradually and at midnight a thick fog had developed. The Weather Bureau reported a fall of .48 of an inch to 5 p.m. The Times rain gauge showed a precipitation of .35 of an inch after that hour. That brings the precipitation for the season to date 1.82 inches. To the same date last season the fall was 2.66 inches.

KIDNAPS HIS LITTLE BOY.

POLICE SEARCHING IN VAIN FOR THE PAIR.

Latest Development in Tragic History of Waters' Family—Father Treats Mother Cruelly and is Fined. Son Sent to the McKinley Home Where He Is Taken.

For forty-eight hours the Los Angeles police department has been searching for Oscar F. Waters of No. 197 Magnolia avenue, believing that he kidnapped his ten-year-old son from the McKinley Home. Up to late last night no trace of the missing man and son had been found.

The crisis between Waters and his wife came on the night of October 24, when the woman called the police to their home and asked that her husband be arrested. Waters was sent to the Central Police Station and on charge of battery, and was held in $100 bail. The following day he was fined $50.

Both Waters and his wife seemed anxious to secure a divorce. According to the statements of the woman, Waters had beaten her and been cruel to her for so long that she could stand it no longer, and she applied for a decree. More than a month has been in the Superior Court.

Mrs. Waters claimed that she had been married in East about twelve years ago. Waters claimed that he had lived with the woman ten years, and that they had never been married. Both, however, sought the possession of the child. The judge gave the case and decided not to issue the decree, but ordered that the child be sent to the home.

Saturday afternoon the local authorities received notice that Waters had obtained possession of his son, and had taken him away. The police at once established a watch on trains and a description of the father and boy were given to the various shifts of patrolmen, but no trace has yet been obtained of the missing pair. The police are confident that Waters and his son have not left the city.

CHRISTMAS SHAKES NERVES.

E. A. Gardner of No. 1212 Crocker street was found unconscious, on South Main street near First street, about 10 o'clock last night, and was sent to the Receiving Hospital. He revived Gardner told Police Surgeon Bonny that he had been subject to fits since the San Francisco earthquake. The horrors that Gardner saw broke down his nervous system. Although Gardner's condition is serious, he is gradually recovering from the attack.

Among some "science notes" published by the Indian Mirror the following relate to the virtues of fruit. This is supplemental to the well-known effect of the juice of acid fruits, such as lemons, apples, pineapples, etc., in getting the craving for alcohol drinks.

It is said that an eminent Japanese bacteriologist has recently shown with reason that the epidemic of lemons, apples and some other fruits are capable of destroying all kinds and varieties of the germs which cause disease and pain in the human body. The acids, citric and malic, contained in the fruit juices probably have the effect of killing these disease germs.

Cholera germs are said to be killed in fifteen minutes by lemon juice or apple juice and even typhoid germs which have great resisting power, are killed in about thirty minutes by either of these acids, even in a very diluted form. A tumbler full of cold water saturated with lemon juice might be gulped down one's throat with impunity provided a lemon has been squeezed into it fifteen or twenty minutes prior to the act. The safety here lies in the absolute certainty of the destruction of the bacilli by the action of the lemon juice. What is a delicious drink to the human being is here evidently a poison to these micro-organisms.

One of the two most dreaded diseases in India—that is, Asiatic cholera and typhoid fever—have a simple remedy in the prevalent and universal diseases have now this universal remedy. Lemons are within the reach of the poorest people in India and they could be secured for a very small price, even in the districts of great scarcity. Even the people by having plentiful supply of lemons and oranges in the times of epidemic could tide over the infection with great credit.

PROUD AND GLAD.

Because Mother Looked So Well After Quitting Coffee.

An Ohio woman was almost distracted with coffee dyspepsia and heart trouble. Like thousands of others, the drug in coffee—caffein—was slowly but steadily undermining her nervous system and interfering with natural digestion of food.

"For 30 years," she writes, "I have used coffee. Have always been sickly—had heart trouble and dyspepsia with ulcers in stomach and mouth so bad sometimes, I was almost distracted and could hardly eat a thing for a week.

"I could not sleep for nervousness, and when I would lie down at night I'd lie up with coffee and my heart would trouble me. At last, when I would want to drink coffee, it would give me. It was like poison to me. I was thin—only weighed 125 pounds, when I quit coffee and began to use Postum.

"From the first day that belching and burning in my stomach stopped. The Postum went down so easy and pleasant. I could sleep as soundly as any one, and after the first month, whenever I met my friends they would ask me what was making me so fleshy and look so well.

"Sometimes, before I could answer quick enough, one of the children, or my husband would say, 'Why, that is what Postum is doing for her'—they were all so proud and glad.

"When I recommend it to any one I always tell them to follow directions in making Postum, as it is not good to taste it weak, but to make it as bold as long enough to get the flavor and rich brown color." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in packages. "There's a reason."

UNION LABOR BOSS GIVES UP THE FIGHT.

Francis Drake Disgusted With Fiasco of Totemite Politics.

Says Unionites May as Well Drop Los Angeles as It Will Take Five Years to Get Over Wilson's Defeat. Will Now Work for His Living—Free Fight Between Members of Disgruntled Gang.

VICTROLA drops from the lips of the renegade walking delegate, Francis Drake: "I'm through with labor unions; I'm going to try to get into the Republican political game."

"You can't unionize Southern California; you might as well pour water on a duck's back."

"San Francisco labor unions have been ruined politically by this Schmitz scandal; they are dead ones."

"It will be five years before the Los Angeles unions can sit up and take nourishment after this Wilson defeat."

"Labor union men may as well drop Los Angeles; it's a dead wire. I will give Arthur Hay (head of the unions here) about two months to get out of town; he'll be fired. Tom Fennecy would leave, but he can't get out."

FRANCIS DRAKE.

Against the desertion of Walking Delegate Francis Drake, the labor union people of this city held excited meetings yesterday.

They read in The Times yesterday morning how Drake had arrived in San Francisco, almost penniless, disheartened—a deserter from the labor union's ranks over which he had ruled as a political boss with a rod of iron.

Having read that, here is some more they can put in their pipes:

A friend of The Times to whom Drake talked in San Francisco arrived here yesterday morning; he confirms the truth of The Times special dispatch.

Drake says he is not only through with Los Angeles labor fights; he is going to quit labor-unionism altogether.

UNIONISM HERE DEAD.

"It's a dead wire," said Drake wearily. "I am going to get into the Republican push and do politics."

Meanwhile, he will go to work in Oakland in some printing office after his long vacation from anything that looked like labor.

Drake left Los Angeles Thursday with his family, quitting Los Angeles for all time. He was almost dead broke, tired out and discouraged.

He said he had bet all the money he could dig up on Wilson; he said that Arthur Hay and other well known leaders here also bet heavy sums.

He says the labor union push is broke.

All the labor union leaders, he said, were cock sure of electing Stanley Wilson as Mayor.

"I would have taken my oath he would get at least 8000 votes," said the fallen labor leader in a disheartened voice.

"But those—fellows who pretend to be labor union men, went into the voting booths and threw us down."

He said it is mostly "the damn Times which is to blame."

"They ought to take that whole damn staff down to the long wharf at Santa Monica; tie stones round their necks and throw them into the ocean."

He was asked a question as to the future of Los Angeles in a labor union way.

NOT A UNION TOWN.

"A dead wire," he said. "You never can unionize it; the whole country is against you. There never will be a single union town in the entire Southern California except at the seaports. The sentiment is all against it."

"Why have we been trying and fighting for years down there. It's no use. You might as well pour water on a duck's back. We helped The Times instead of hurt it."

"The time of the damned old town be scab if it wants to."

He made the picturesque declaration that it will be five years before the Los Angeles unions will be able to sit up and take nourishment after the defeat of Wilson.

Drake was asked why he didn't join the labor union forces in San Francisco.

"DEAD, BUSTED, RUINED."

He made a surprising reply; who would have dreamed he had so much sense!

"Labor-unionism is dead there too!" he said. "I tell you the whole thing is a dead wire."

"These people up here in San Francisco have quivered themselves. They are up against it if they knew it. This Schmitz-Ruef business will kill them."

a mud puddle back in the road. He had been thrown clear out of the seat with the lurch.

He lit on his feet but one of his ankles was badly strained.

He didn't bother about ankles. Already twenty feet away, was a runaway fire engine making straight for the middle of the crowded wholesale district drawn by three maddened unguided horses. The big engine, gleaming and malignant, shiny and belching smoke and fire looked like a fiend of destruction.

Nobody will ever be able to give a clear account of the next event. His hurt ankle forgotten, Robinson ran through the mud like a college sprinter after the runaway engine.

A running five and a half ton engine is no joke. There is no getting aboard it except by climbing over the wheels. At least no seeming way.

Out and over the mass of wheels and gears and shiny intricate brass work, however, extends a suction-pipe—the piece of hose that you have often seen on either side of the engine, higher than a man's head.

Health and Beauty
Beauty is the external sign of health; with failing health comes failing beauty. A delicate organism is quickly over-taxed by the household duties, and the demands of society. The stand drain upon her nervous system. The penalty is a tired, out, exhausted condition. It destroys her appetite, and at intervals much suffering and distress. When these conditions are weakened nerves are strengthened. Dr. Miles' Nervine will do this. It stimulates action of all the organs, refreshing sleep, and away that look of care.

Let Me Teach You ADVERTISING FACE TO FACE
THE TWO GREAT factors of existence are MIND and MATTER. And it would seem, also, these two great elements. We are taught that these two great elements. We are taught that the Infinite Mind is the eternal master of matter; and are, ourselves, doing great things—WE THINK—along that line.

Rockefeller is a wonderful example of a single man's control of human activities—a MIND'S power when directed LOGICALLY. That is WHY he is rich—because he can CONTROL the MUSCLE of millions of people, and by force of MIND which creates adequate machinery can take the PRODUCT of this MUSCLE entirely to himself.

61,500 SHARES KEY NOTE STOCK

Sold on First Announcement

When our mail is opened today, the first allotment of Key Note Stock, (Inyo Co.), at 20c will unquestionably be over-subscribed. Greatest sales of mining stock made in the history of Los Angeles. And the answer is?

We had 70,000 shares of Key Note Stock to sell at 20c a share. We offered it at this price because we wanted to give our clients and the people of California a chance to buy stock in a full fledged, grown up developed mine—NOT a prospect, with perhaps millions in sight—BUT a mine with figures, these! Ain't they? Just read how we guarantee these figures:

In the Key Note Mine & Milling Co., ourselves the statements made in this advertisement, sworn statements made by the president of the company, can have this property examined at any time under following conditions, to-wit:

The money for investment must first be deposited in a bank.

Prospective investor must send a practical mining engineer or expert to the property.

Third Condition: We will order refunded all moneys thus deposited, plus the cost of this trip, our liability limited to 10 per cent. of the amount of subscription, provided said engineer or expert does not find sufficient ore already on the dump and exposed in the workings, that will average $15.00 per ton, to keep a 20-stamp mill running day and night for 300 days (a milling year.)

At $15.00 per ton with a 300-days' run, this finding means a grand total for one year of $225,000.

The above is the strongest and most liberal offering ever made by any sane promoter in the history of mining.

Key Note Stock Goes to 30 cents a Share

Tonight at 9. Your only chance at 20c. Sorry to give you but one day's notice, but we can't break our contract with the Key Note M. & M. Co. Today only at 20c. Even though you buy at 30c, 40c or 50c, you will be independent for life. $500 to $5000 will do it, according to your views of living.

Remember 10 per cent. down and 10 per cent. a month will buy Key Note stock. Thus, $20 down and $20 a month for nine months will buy 1000 shares (if you buy today, and we don't guarantee that you can.) Tomorrow it will be $30 down and $30 a month. Good buy at par. Remember, the State mining report of California says: "Millions have been taken from the Key Note." If you don't believe us you ought to believe what the reports of the State of California says. See them at our office. Come in today or tomorrow or the next day. The sooner the better for you. See real ore, with real gold, from a real mine.

Say what you will we can prove that we already have enough ore on the Key Note dump to insure every dollar invested in it.
